Services, Shelters, Safe Homes, and Advocacy Resources

Program Description

There are many services and agencies providing services to victims of domestic violence and their children to help them transition out of their violent situations. Domestic violence programs are different at each shelter or agency. Services which may be provided include:

- Shelters/Safe Homes
- Shelter Referral
- Counseling Services
- Counseling Referral Services
- Services for Women and Children
- Transitional Housing
- Legal Advocacy/Services
- Advocacy/Case Management

Additional services may be available depending on the agency you contact.

Eligibility Information

Anyone who is in a domestic violence situation, or is concerned about a friend or family member, can contact these agencies for advice and services.

Where to Apply

For more information, please contact the agency/shelter of your choice in your area. Some agencies and shelters do not publish their location for the safety of their clients. The following is a list of the domestic violence agencies, shelters and safe home programs throughout Arizona, as well as a list of the services they provide. Some agencies/shelters provide services for specific populations; in these cases the populations served are listed below. Some domestic violence shelters can house homeless individuals or families, depending on availability.

Family Advocacy Centers listed below provide a comprehensive range of services to victims of domestic and sexual violence, and their families, in a safe, comforting and supportive environment.
